Week 4 Panel Discussion

“Discipline Is Not a Four-Letter Word”

Winter Quarter, 2018
Greg (& Vikki) Nordstrom

But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 3:14-15

“Reality Discipline”

“Letting the reality of the situation become the teacher to the child.”

7 Principles of Reality Discipline:

1. Establish a healthy authority over your children
2. Hold your children accountable for their actions
3. Let reality (and life) be the teacher
4. Let your actions match your words
5. Stick to your guns, but don't shoot your foot
6. Relationships come before rules and activities
7. Live by your values—model desired behavior

Godly discipline...

Proverbs 13:24

A refusal to correct is a refusal to love; love your children by disciplining them. (MSG)

Ephesians 6:4

Fathers, don't exasperate your children by coming down hard on them. Take them by the hand and lead them in the way of the Master. (MSG)

Proverbs 29:17

Discipline your children; you'll be glad you did—they'll turn out delightful to live with. (MSG)

Some final thoughts...

“Parents, let’s hang in there when it comes to discipline in the home! We all want our kids to be honest and hardworking citizens. We want them to be faithful witnesses of God’s Word, living embodiments of Christ. It is our duty and privilege as Christian parents to “discipline those we love” (Proverbs 3:12) as we guide our kids in God’s truth. This is so easy to say but often so hard to do—especially as our society increasingly blurs the lines between right and wrong and dismisses moral absolutes.”
