

Letters From a Skeptic

Lesson 1: Overview and “The Invitation”

“By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another”
John 13:35

“Christianity isn’t a religion,
it’s a relationship”

Overview and Introduction

1. “Letters From a Skeptic”, 2nd edition, by Greg and Edward Boyd
  - a. Greg (son): Theology professor at Bethel College in St Paul; “preaching pastor” at Woodland Hills Church. Ph.D. Div. from Princeton; M. Div. from Yale. Married with wife and three kids. Despite his theological background, Greg is extremely well grounded in the Bible, and “rightly divides the Word of truth.”
  - b. Edward (father): During the correspondence, lived in Lake Placid, Fl; father of 6; grandfather of 15; great-grandfather of 9; worked in sales management for Uniroyal; early Catholic; agnostic. (NB: Died on 1/1/2003, at age 84)

“Exceptionally intelligent, intensely skeptical, very strong-willed, and 70 years old—could a more unlikely candidate for conversion be found than my father?”

Greg Boyd, Preface

2. At the son’s request, father and son begin a long-term, written dialog raising questions and answering objections to Christianity
3. Loving others means sharing your faith in Christ with them!
  - a. Ultimate goal: To help others get to heaven
  - b. Dr. Boyd gives us a very effective model for how to do this
4. We’ll be reading many of these letters and discussing the points raised
  - a. Letters are only slightly edited for clarity and organization (not in original order)
  - b. Caveat: Father’s language not “cleaned up”
5. Benefits to this study:
  - a. Many of us have non-believing loved ones and friends. This can be a resource as you plan to reach out to them. The father’s questions are the world’s questions!
  - b. Helpful to believers who are wrestling with the rational foundation of their faith
  - c. An extremely interesting study of apologetics (defense of the faith)

<Read: “The Invitation: To Dad, with Hope,” pp. 17-19>

6. Comments?

Correspondence 1: “Why has Christianity done so much harm?”

<Read: The father’s first letter, pp. 22-23>

1. Remember, these are real letters!
2. Father is willing and interested in the dialog—right from the get-go!
  - a. Do you suppose any of your friends or relatives might be interested, too?
3. Father doesn’t have positive beliefs, but rather negative ones
  - a. Quickly states he doesn’t have a “faith” or “worldview”

- b. He believes he knows what he doesn't believe
- 4. Father is somewhat surprised by son's beliefs, given his liberal education
  - a. Note this doesn't stop the dialog (i.e. you don't have to be "perfect" in someone's eyes)
  - b. Calls his son's belief in this "Christianity business" implausible (but again, he's willing)
- 5. The objection—How can an all-powerful, all-loving God allow the church to do bad things?
- 6. Comments?

<Read the son's reply, pp.24-26>

- 7. Notice how the son engages the father "from where he is."
  - a. He encourages the father's critical thinking—cites it as healthy.

"To the Jews I became as a Jew, so that I might win Jews; to those who are under the Law, as under the Law though not being myself under the Law, so that I might win those who are under the Law; to those who are without law, as without law, though not being without the law of God but under the law of Christ, so that I might win those who are without law. To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak; I have become all things to all men, so that I may by all means save some."

1 Cor 9:20-22

- 8. Note also that he challenges his father to "keep an open mind."
  - a. Perfect! We don't want to convert someone only on our charisma or on their fears.
  - b. Let the Word speak directly to them!
- 9. Examine Greg's statement: "My only claim—the one I want to attempt to defend—is that the foundational beliefs of Christianity are the most reasonable beliefs to base one's life on."
  - a. Personal, loving God
  - b. Revealed in/through Christ
  - c. Salvation by grace through this man Jesus
  - d. Inspired Bible is how we learn of, and interact with, God
- 10. The son's rebuttal points:
  - a. Christianity is personal, not corporate
    - i. Greg: "...for you cannot have love without freedom"
    - ii. The God of the Bible is a God of love, and therefore a God of freedom
    - iii. Without freedom, we'd simply be robots—and all the evil would be God's fault!
    - iv. We're free to choose love or choose evil
    - v. God is pure good—whatever is not good is not from God
    - vi. All evil in the world comes from free wills other than God
      - (1) He's setting the stage for a later discussion of Satan
  - b. Greg: "Christianity isn't a religion, it's a relationship"

NB: Throughout this study, notice how the son is patient and long-suffering, and focuses on just a few key points. The father, on the other hand, is all over the map in his criticisms and objections. But from his point of view, his beliefs are very rational and normal. Remember:

"And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing, in whose case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving so that they might not see the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God."

2 Cor 4:3-4

Homework: Read Correspondence 2 and Correspondence 3.
